

Anthony Lamberti

December 2, 1924 - April 23, 2020

Anthony Lamberti, 95, of Marlboro, passed away on Thursday, April 23, 2020 at home surrounded by his family. He was born in Newark, New Jersey, where he lived until moving to Springfield in 1959. He lived in Springfield until 2006 and then he and his wife, Victoria moved to Marlboro New Jersey with their son and his family where he has remained ever since. Anthony was a self-employed entrepreneur who started with a luncheonette truck down at Port Newark and also owned a grocery store and apartment building/bar. He most notably will be remembered for his charitable side. He would do whatever he could to help those less fortunate including feeding and clothing the homeless in Newark. He was truly a selfless individual. He also loved to do work around the yard and to be outdoors. During his childhood he served as an altar boy at his church and also loved baseball and watching cowboy movies on TV. His favorite time was spent with his grandsons and great grand babies. Family was very important to him. His memory will continue to live on in the hearts and minds of those who knew him. He was predeceased by his wife of 58 years, Victoria Lamberti, he leaves behind a son and daughter-in-law Philip and Linda Lamberti, two grandchildren, Philip Jr. and his wife Denielle, and Anthony Joseph and two great grandchildren, Nicolas and Nina. Please keep the families in your thoughts during this very difficult time

Cemetery

Marlboro Mausoleum and Cemetery

361 Highway 79

Marlboro, NJ, 07751

Comments

“ Let perpetual light shine upon him... may he Rest In Peace. Amen

Andrew - April 25 at 11:30 PM

“ May you be at peace And welcomed to the table of the Lord as you are reunited with your beloved Victoria. Rest easy Mr & Mrs Lamberti Dear Phil, Linda & family, May you all be comforted during your sadness and grief during this most difficult time. One thing that is For certain and that is our rising to new and eternal life. Peace , thoughts and condolences. I always enjoyed seeing “Mr. Lamberti” working on the lawn then relax over the cook out and talk about down neck and the common bond We shared...my grandparents and family. How he loved to tell me the goodness he never forgot from my grandparents. That just warmed my heart every time he mentioned them, since I never knew my grandmother and gramps was in his 70's -80's I was 12 when he passed. I will forever hold that memory of him and the picture he so beautifully painted of my grandparents. So there ya have it, now he's probably telling them now how he met their favorite grandchild, Albert Malgeri ... #23 out of 23. Peace & Love,
Albert

Albert Francis Malgeri - April 28 at 08:47 PM