

John Ryan

January 2, 1942 - March 12, 2021

On Friday, March 12, 2021 John Ryan, loving husband, and father of two children passed away at age 79. He had been battling Parkinson's Disease for many years.

John was born January 2, 1942 in Teaneck, NJ. He was a Printer by trade, working at Ranno Bros. and Printing Craftsmen for most of his career.

He is survived by his wife, Janice; his two sons, James, and Michael; grandchildren, Lauren and Lisa Ryan, Colleen and Connor Ryan; Shannon and Sara Fleming; and his great-grand-daughter Olivia Jean; and his stepson Jeff Gillow; and stepdaughter Pamela Fleming. He is also survived by his first wife Doris.

John was predeceased by his brother, Dennis.

John had a passion for auto racing and was a member of ARDC Racing Club. He was owner of the #57 Racing Midget and won many races during the 70's and 80's. He was well respected and very talented and was mechanic of the year one year.

He was known for his easy-going personality and quick wit and his sharp sense of humor. He was a man among men.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later date.
