

Stephen Cappelli

August 24, 1955 - July 21, 2019

Stephen Cappelli, 63, passed away on July 21, 2019 at Preferred Care Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Old Bridge, following a serious illness. Born in Bad Kreuznach, Germany at the U.S. Army base while his father was serving in the military, Stephen was raised in the Bronx and Queens, New York, before moving to Old Bridge in 1983. He earned a Bachelor's degree in psychology at the University of Buffalo/SUNY and a certificate in computer programming from New York University. Most of his career was spent working in Manhattan in data management, initially with the YMCA and later with financial firms, including Merrill Lynch. Stephen was an avid reader with an extensive book collection of science fiction, philosophy, and history. He was a life-long music fan, particularly of both classic and modern jazz.

Stephen was pre-deceased by his father Albert. He leaves behind his only child, Kyle, as well as his mother Brigitte, brother Clifford and sister-in-law Monica, nephews Jonathan and Aaron, and nieces Christina and Stephanie, as well as many cousins.

A memorial service and celebration of Stephen's life will be held on Saturday, August 17, 2019 at 2 pm at the Old Bridge Funeral Home, 2350 Route 516, Old Bridge, New Jersey. Online condolences can be made at www.oldbridgefh.com. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that gifts in memory of Stephen be made to the American Cancer Society at <https://www.cancer.org/involved/donate.html>

Comments

“ Stephen was a good man. Smart and caring, and he loved his family, books, and music. The world is a sadder place now that he's gone to the spirit in the sky.
