

Yolane Surette Marcano

August 31, 1964 - October 24, 2021

Yolane Surette Marcano was called home to the Lord's loving embrace on Sunday, October 24, 2021. Yolane was a beautiful woman, in every sense of the word. She was our angel, sent to earth to bring her family and friends pure and unconditional love. When Elisabeth Kubler-Ross said "People are like stained-glass windows. They sparkle and shine when the sun is out, but when the darkness sets in, their true beauty is revealed only if there is a light from within," she must have been thinking of Yolane. The light that shown from Yolane could light the darkest of days - like a lighthouse providing guidance and safety through life's darkest storms for those who turned to her for strength. During good times, she was as lively as a butterfly floating and dancing in a field of wildflowers on a warm summer day. Always the life of the party, she had an infectious and genuine laugh - once she started laughing, no one around her could resist joining in. She enjoyed celebrations and loved to dance. Yolane enjoy every minute of her time on this earth and lived it to the fullest.

Yolane is survived by the love of her life; her loving and devoted husband, Robert Marcano, her sister and brother-in-law, Sharon and Aaron Coley, sister and brother-in-law, Debra and Jody Lawson, brother and sister-in-law, Kelvin and Anna Chatman, her sister-in-law, Margaret Fogel, her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Thomas and Betsy Marcano, her Aunt Burt, Aunt Dorothy Butch, Aunt Virginia Carter, Aunt Sylvia Carter, her most favorite grandniece, Johnise "Bookie" Faggins, her nieces: Ashley "Boop-Boop" Lawson and her favorite four-legged great-nephew, Axl, nieces Annie Fleming, Demetria Chatman, Kristine Tucker, Jennifer Tucker, Margo Marcano, Anna Marcano, and Madison Marcano, her nephews: Charlie Coley, Dawayne Chatman, and Tony Chatman, and her Godchildren: Mikey Lawson, Mooney Lawson. Keedy Faggins, Diana Farqui, and Jessica Matula, and many, many, more family and friends.

She is also survived by her favorite four-legged great-nephew, Axl, Boop-Boop's furbaby. Yolane has joined her parents Charlie and Anna Chatman, mother-in-law, Lydia Marcano, her brother, Erroll Chatman, sister Cynthia Chatman, and her niece, Tiffany Chatman in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Although Yolane Marcano has left those of us still here on Earth, we must try not morn her passing, but instead rejoice in the blessing she was in each of our lives. Those who wish to celebrate Yolane's life and love are welcome to attend visitation on Friday, October 29, 2021, from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Minister Ollie Blackwell will conduct service on Saturday, October 30, 2021 at 1:00 p.m., after which Yolane's body will be laid to rest at Shoreland Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

“ I am truly saddened by your loss. I meet you 23 years ago and you accepted me into our family with open arms. You were excited for the smallest things...if we gave you your favorite bubble gum, a date to Starbucks or the movies, or a small bouquet of flowers. You were always present and happily supported all that we did. You encouraged me throughout my own breast cancer scare this year and I am forever grateful! You loved my daughter like she was your own...Her Auntie! The one who got her an American Girl Doll, the one who took her to experience the world....plays and outings in the Big City! She would come back and tell me that Auntie and Uncle Bobby took me to see this and that with such excitement! I will cherish the great memories! May you rest in eternal peace! Prayers and comfort to Uncle Bobby and the rest of our family! Love Conquers All!

“ I met yolane in the 70's, when she would visit North Carolina with her siblings. She was very comical and nice. Once I became her sister-in-law and moved to Jersey, we became close as I would say , she's my little sister. Tweet, you will be truly missed by all you came in contact with. Hugs and kisses my dear.💙💙💙
